PRESIDENT

Dr. Daniel W. Johnson

Transfer Opportunities | Transferring to a Wisconsin Private College or University is Easy!

Considering transferring from a Wisconsin Technical College to a Wisconsin private, nonprofit college or university?

- WAICU has developed a course-to-course agreement with the sixteen Wisconsin technical colleges to help you continue your education at a participating Wisconsin private, nonprofit college or university. More information and a list of eligible courses can be found at WisconsinsPrivateColleges.org/ccta.

Are you a veteran with military education and/or training?

- Many Wisconsin private colleges and universities are committed to ensuring that both active duty and military veterans receive college credit for military education and training as applicable to their programs of study. These colleges and universities will transfer credit for Basic Training, Advanced Training, and/or Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES) Subject Standardized Tests (DSSTs). Visit WisconsinsPrivateColleges.org/student-resources/veterans-wisconsins-private-colleges for more information.
- You may also be eligible for federal and state benefits as a transfer student. Please see the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs webpage on veteran education benefits dva.wi.gov/Pages/educationEmployment/WIVSAG.aspx for more information and to learn more about the veterans grant program for students attending private, nonprofit institutions.

Campus Visit Information

A campus visit is often the best way to decide on the college that is the right fit for you. Think about your dreams, career plans, learning style, hobbies, and more—and make sure to explore each college as much as you can. It is never too early in your college journey to start taking tours. Most schools offer visit days all year round!

Visiting a college (or two or three) in-person and/or virtually gives you an opportunity to learn about the admissions process, academic programs, housing options, and student life. Visits are a wonderful way to connect with current students and faculty, and to start picturing your journey.

Not sure what to ask on a college tour? Want to make sure you get the full visit experience? Need to know how and where to start? We have you covered at WisconsinsPrivateColleges.org/visit!

Paying for College

Wisconsin's nonprofit independent colleges and universities are private— NOT pricey! Learn more about paying for your education and how to make the most of your financial aid and scholarship package. For the last decade, the average out-of-pocket tuition (tuition minus financial aid) at Wisconsin's private, nonprofit colleges and universities has been under $6,000. The average out-of-pocket tuition in 2020-2021 at these Wisconsin colleges was $4,236. Don't let assumptions about high tuition stand in your way of a great education. There can be a big difference between the published price of college tuition and what you ultimately pay. A Wisconsin private, nonprofit college financial aid package is designed specifically for your needs and can dramatically lower your costs.

*Out-of-pocket costs do not include payments on loans (federally subsidized, unsubsidized, or private).

The FAFSA

The key to receiving most financial aid is completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at studentaid.gov. After applying for admission to the institution(s) of your choice, file the FAFSA as soon as possible. For students applying for the 2024-2025 academic year, the filing period ends on June 30, 2024.

Helpful tips:

- Don't wait to find out where you've been accepted to apply for financial aid! Colleges may have different deadlines for admission and financial aid. Be sure to contact your prospective college financial aid office for forms and deadlines. We've got all the resources you need on the next page.
- The best way to ensure you receive aid—or to find out about scholarships and awards for which you qualify—is to ask. Financial aid professionals on campus are experts and are committed to helping you succeed. You can also ask your high school counselor for a list of scholarships.
- Looking for help with filling out your FAFSA? For a list of virtual and in-person workshop dates, visit CollegeGoalWI.org. They're here to help you and/or your parents or guardian along the way.

Doing the Math

To determine the net tuition, subtract your financial aid award (grants and loans) from the tuition "sticker price." The average Wisconsin private, nonprofit college freshman financial aid package is made up of 77 percent grants and scholarships—money you won't have to repay—instead of loans.
